The success of individuals, of communities, and of nations, depends on the extent to which the spiritual forces, latent in all of us, are wholesomely developed. Integrity, faith, industry, vision, thrift and an interest in the other fellow—these constitute the fundamentals of a good citizen. We hope that the time spent in high school has aided in the development of these qualities.

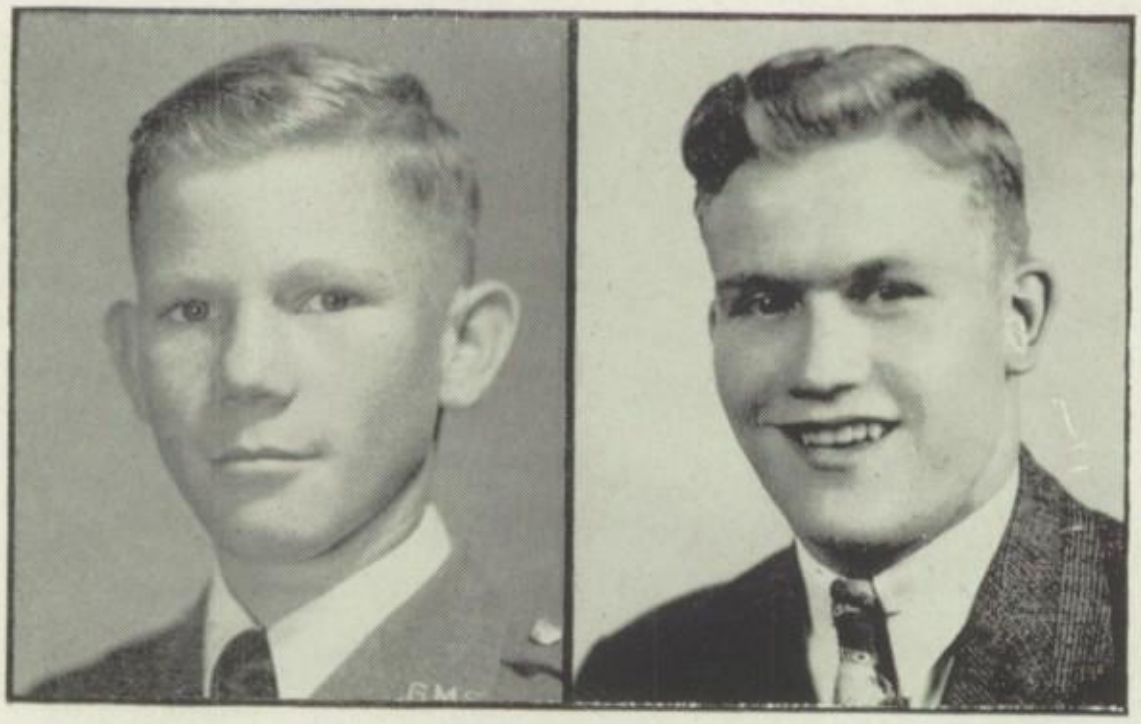
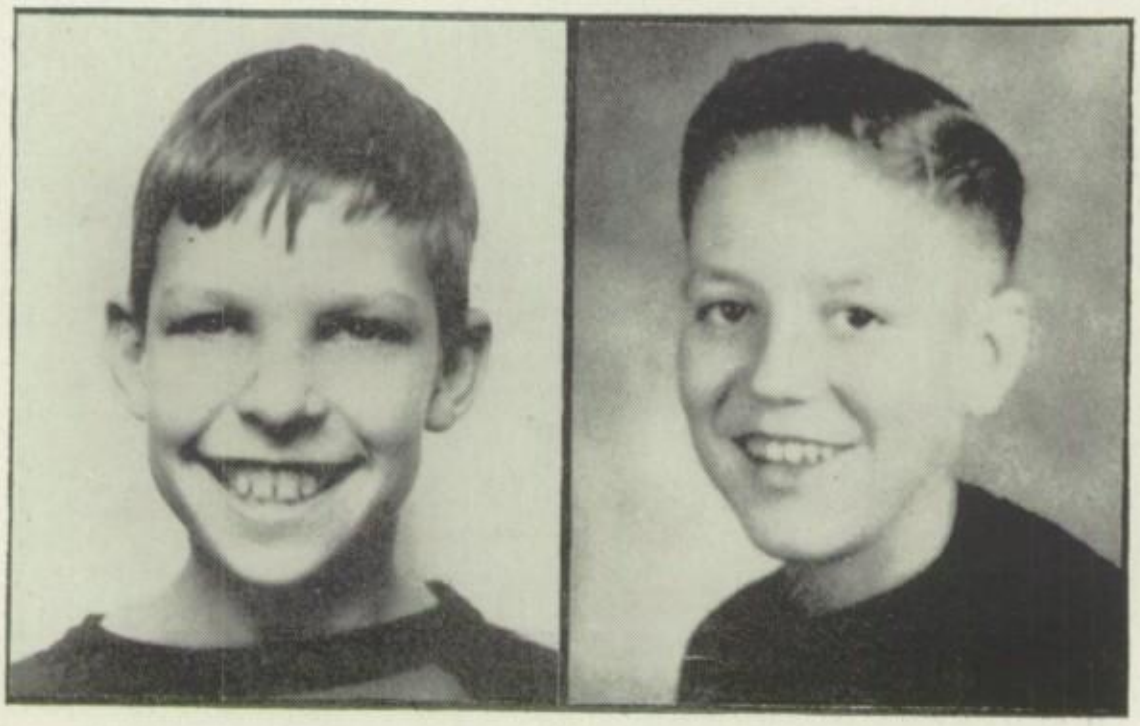
Not in the time of pleasure
Hope doth set her bow;
But in the sky of sorrow,
Over the vale of woe.

Through gloom and shadow look we
On beyond the years!
The soul would have no rainbow
Had the eyes no tears.





Senior Class History

We, the class of 1947, entered the Freshman Class of Philipsburg High School in 1944. Our activities for that year consisted of a Valentine party and assembly programs. Our class officers were:

President ..... Joe Speranza
Vice President ..... Marianne Montresor
Secretary ..... Bess Crago
Treasurer ..... John Czap

After entering Senior High School in the fall of 1945 we were proud to bear the name of Sophomore. Even at this early date in our school career, our contributions to the band and sports as well as the many other organizations were becoming prominent. We proved our dramatic ability by presenting "Act Your Age" directed by Mr. Skelton. Officers for this year were:

President ..... Joe Speranza
Vice President ..... Bertha Thompson
Secretary ..... Patty Latz
Treasurer ..... Clair Ritchey

As Juniors we gained many laurels for our Alma Mater. Our boys proved their ability in football, basketball and wrestling by becoming great assets to the varsity squads. In drama we shone as we presented "Best Foot Forward" directed by Mr. Skelton. After a few months of anxious waiting we received our class rings and pins and proudly displayed them to all.

The following classmates were elected as our officers for the Junior year:

President ..... Dick Gette
Vice President ..... John Czap
Secretary ..... Clair Ritchey
Treasurer ..... Tom Golding

Emerging from a long, restful vacation, we, now dignified seniors, were prepared for not only the busiest, but also the most important year in our high school career. Our senior class play "New Fires" which was under the able direction of Miss George was a huge success. During this year the band received its new uniforms and presented a splendid concert. Our football, basketball and wrestling stars shone brightly as they often brought us to victory.

The officers elected for our last year were:

President ..... Dick Gette
Vice President ..... John Czap
Secretary ..... Bertha Thompson
Treasurer ..... Doris Henry

Ordering name cards and announcements, having pictures taken and planning for the prom all led to a great climax on Tuesday evening, June 3, when we graduated.

We would like to take this opportunity to express our gratitude to the faculty and principals who have patiently seen us through our trials and tribulations; and willingly guided and directed us on our road of learning the past four years.

Annual Club

The Annual Club, one of the first activities of the year to function, formed its committees early in September Each group had definite assignments and without the cooperation of all these committees, the editor, Bertha Thompson; co-editor, Patsy Latz and the advisors, this publication would have been impossible. Rita Roth, in charge of the literary department, was assisted in her work by Patricia O'Brien, Louise Horne, Ann Jones, Jane Lathers, Delphine Hetrick, Dolores Johnson, Shirley Mayes, and Harriet Gowland. Peggy Goldthorp, along with her committee Louise Hessong, Jane Lathers, Muriel McClain, Jean Hastings, Gloria Isenberg, Becky Kennard, Shirley Mayes, Dorothy Walls, Joyce Finberg and Patsy Latz, did excellent work by contacting patrons for our annual. Louise Horne, Ann Jones, Jean Hastings, Becky Kennard and Harriet Gowland took care of subscriptions for the yearbook. Marianne Montresor, acting as chairman, recorded weekly reports of the sales by a scale chart on the bulletin board. John Sinfelt, as sports editor, with Charles Andrews, George Peters, Gerald Cartright, Pete Schwab and Paul Schwab, contributed interesting articles on sports. Betty Watson served as business manager; Doris Henry, as the artist who made clever posters for the subscription campaign. No yearbook could be published without typists: chief typist, Shirley Wood; her assistants, Joan Kelley, Helen Wilson, Louise Hessong, and Jane Lathers. Many thanks to these students and to others who contributed pictures and articles.

We, the Annual Staff, would like to express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Dean Allison, photographer; Kurtz Bros., the printers; Erie Engraving, and the patrons for making possible this publication of our annual.

Student Council

The Student Council, composed of the officers from the three Senior High classes and a representative from each home room, this year as in previous years, strove to discuss and settle problems which would make our school system more efficient.

They were confronted by such matters as the awarding of service letters to athletes and cheerleaders, presenting new ideas for better assemblies, and planning parties. They enjoyed very much making arrangements for the Senior Prom and other inter-school activities.

Mr. Millard S. Hancock, Principal of the High School, acted as Student Council Faculty Advisor and asisted the following officers: President, Dick Gette; Vice-President, John Czap; and Secretary, Eloise Shimmel.

Chorus

During the past year, the girls' chorus, ably directed by Miss Mary Jane Simpson, was active in presenting impressive programs for Christmas and Easter assemblies and the Baccalaureate Services.

The membership of the chorus was greatly increased this year, not only because of the girls' increased desire to sing, but also because of the many added opportunities offered to one to display her talents. In addition to the opportunity to sing solos, there was chance of being selected to attend the Pennsylvania School of Music Association's Central District Chorus festival held at Bellefonte, Pennsylvania on January 9th, 10th and 11th. The girls who were accepted to attend this festival were: Margaret Morgan, Soprano; Rita Roth, and Marlene Middleton, Soprano II; Bertha Thompson, Alto; and Virginia Eboch, Alto II. Marlene Middleton also attended the All-State chorus festival held at State College on February 6th, 7th and 8th.

Added interest in this extra-curricular activity was created when a sextet of the most versatile girls of the chorus was formed. This group which sang for many community organizations and between acts of class plays was composed of the following girls: Marianne Montresor and Frances Stott, Soprano; Marlene Middleton and Marilyn Johnson, Soprano II; Bertha Thompson and Margaret Goldthorp, Alto.

The members of the chorus know that the entire school join them in expressing their gratitude to Miss Mary Jane Simpson who gave so much pleasure to us by combining her efforts and ability to create such impressive results.

Senior Band

The P. H. S. band has long been the pride and joy of the school as well as the community. During the past year, just as always, it handsomely represented us at football games and brought home many prizes for marching in various parades during the summer.

The following persons were elected as officers for the 1946-47 school year:

President ..... Charles M. Knepp
Vice-president ..... Mary Richards
Secretary ..... Marlene Middleton
Treasurer ..... Rita Roth
Librarian ..... George Peters

The fact that the band produces some very fine musicians was proved when it sent the following nine members to the Pennsylvania School Music Association, Central district band festival which was held at Emporium, Pennsylvania on February 20, 21, 22: Harriet Gowland, tenor saxophone; Mary Richards, clarinet; Charles M. Knepp, cornet; George Peters, bass; Ned Holdren, trombone; Bob McCamley, trombone; Rita Roth, French horn; Marlene Middleton, clarinet; Jack Pearson, alto saxophone. Charles M. Knepp also attended the All-State band festival held at Lebanon on March 13, 14, and 15.

The climax of the band's success came when it presented its Tenth Annual Concert on March 20-21. This was the first time the group had ever given a two night concert. The band, clad in their crisp, new uniforms, presented a difficult program which was thoroughly enjoyed and acclaimed by the audience as a huge success.

The students, faculty, and the members of the community wish to express their gratitude to Mr. John E. Manner whose never tiring efforts resulted in one of the most outstanding bands in Central Pennsylvania.

Senior Class Play

"New Fires," a play full of real people, was chosen by Miss Marie George for its dramatic possibilities and general wholesomeness. Under the competent direction of Miss George, the play was presented on December 6, 1946. The theme of "New Fires" was a timely one, portraying a typical story of modern life, which struck a familiar note in the hearts of the audience. It very subtly taught a lesson of better family life which had a definite educational value.

The play was a stupendous success, not only because each character gave an outstanding performance, but also because the unusual setting was produced by the students under the supervision of the stage director, Mr. Robert Barnett. This was the first time the pupils ever undertook the dual task of acting and constructing the set.

Sophomore Class Play

"Don't Take My Penny," a comedy in three acts, was presented by members of the Sophomore class on March 7, 1947. The plot centered around Penny Pringle, whose highest ambition was to become an actress. Supporting roles included those of her family and friends who did not share her enthusiasm. Her ambition was suddenly shattered by the arrival of the Hollywood producer, who chose, not Penny, but her older sister, for his leading lady. The complicated situation of the plot added interest and suspense for the entire audience.

To Mr. Robert Barnett, the very capable director; to Miss Marie George and her stage crew, and to the members of the cast go worthy praises for making the Sophomore play such a great success.

Junior Class Play

"Our Town" by Thornton Wilder is a three-act drama concerned with the lives, loves and sorrows of the inhabitants of the small town of Grover's Corners, New Hampshire. This play received the coveted Pulitzer Prize and is already being rated as a modern classic. As the "New York Sun" review stated," 'Our Town' reaches into the past of America and revokes movingly a way of life which is lost in our present turmoil. An original and extremely interesting play."

Varsity Football Squad 1946

ALFRED JONES, Coach

Philipsburg—27 Barnesboro—12

The opening game of the season resulted in a decisive victory over the Red Dragons of Barnesboro. Tom Golding scored all four Mountaineer touchdowns. Kephart converted in three out of four attempts for the extra point. Barnesboro scored both their touchdowns on forward passes.

Philipsburg—20 Johnsonburg—0

For the second straight year the Philipsburg eleven downed the Johnsonburg eleven. This year the Johnsonburg boys were set on making up for last year's defeat. But the Mountaineers were also set on a victory and, after a hard fought game, came out on top by a score of 20-0 for their second victory of the season.

Philipsburg—7 Hollidaysburg—12

The third game of the season resulted in a loss for the Mountaineers. The Jonesmen outplayed the Hollidaysburg eleven throughout the game, even scoring the first touchdown. But Hollidaysburg had the so-called "breaks" and scored on two well-executed pass plays.

Philipsburg—6 Tyrone—26

The P-burg eleven was routed by the Golden Eagles of Tyrone at Memorial Field. P-burg even scored the first touchdown, but this was to no avail, as the Tyrone eleven completely dominated the rest of the game. The Eagles actually pushed our boys wherever they wanted them to go, leaving P-burg their second defeat.

Philipsburg—0 State College—13

P-burg's third defeat of the season came as a result of a few tough "breaks". Early in the game Gette raced 80 yards for a touchdown, only to have it called back because of a clipping penalty. State's first score was the result of a blocked punt, and their second score came late in the game to climax a long drive downfield.

Philipsburg—0 DuBois—0

On a muddy field the Mountaineers and Beavers furiously battled to a scoreless tie. Both teams played conservative football, avoiding the use of reverses and pass plays in favor of straight, hard football. They both waited for the break that never came. DuBois' lone drive was stopped by a pass interception, and P-burg's one long drive ended on the DuBois 2 yard line.

Philipsburg—40 Clearfield—0

The fourth game of the season resulted in an overwhelming victory indeed, as Gette, Golding, Adams, and Rusnak scored six touchdowns in all. Kephart made good on four conversions. The Bison eleven, not even coming near the P-burg goal line, was badly battered throughout the game.

Philipsburg—21 Bellefonte—6

A rejuvenated Mountaineer eleven passed and ran their way to their fourth victory of the season. The line played a commendable game, and the offense was sparked by Golding and Czap.

Philipsburg—7 Osceola—12

Led by their sensational halfback, Elwood Latz, the Indians managed to shade the Mountaineers on two very well-executed pass plays. P-burg's lone tally was scored by husky Joe Rusnak, who bullied his way over the goal on a tackle around play.

Varsity Basketball

During the past basketball season the local five, even though they fought hard, did not have a very impressive record. Although getting off to a fair start, winning three out of the first five games, the team went into a big dip and could not seem to pull out of it. The local squad was captained by Dick Gette, who led the team in individual scoring with 175 points The service of Dick Gette, Bill Rapsey, Chuck Maclay, Clair Ritchey, LeRoy Miller, and Joe Speranza will be lost to next year's squad. The team was ably coached by Mr. Lupton, who still has some good material left for next season's team. The season's record was as follows:

Junior Varsity Basketball

The local Junior Varsity basketball team had a fairly successful season, winning eight and losing nine. The squad was capably coached by Mr. Grundy, who did very well in his first season as a coach in P.H.S. The highest individual scores of the team were Maurice Watson, Bob Bottomley, and George Czap. On the whole the boys displayed every indication of being good varsity material for next year's squad. The season's record was as follows:

Junior High Basketball

This last season was also the first year that Mr. Myers served as a coach in our school. He did a good job of teaching the Junior high boys the main fundamentals of basketball. At times the young fellows showed signs of becoming good basketball material in the near future. The season's record showed two wins and four losses. The record was as follows:

Philipsburg	26	DuBois	28

Varsity Wrestling

The wrestling squad, under the very competent direction of Mr. Jones, enjoyed its best season since the beginning of the sport in P. H. S., winning seven and losing three. The local team placed second in the district wrestling tournament at Lock Haven, March 7 and 8, and even managed to have three district champions—Dick Bainey, Alf Good, and Mike Comitz. These three will represent Philipsburg at the state tournament to be held at Kingston on March 14 and 15. These boys deserve much credit, as do the other members of the squad, for their very commendable showing this past season.

On March 14 and 15 at Kingston, Pennsylvania two Philipsburg wrestlers, Dick Bainey 95 pounds, and Mike Comitz 145 pounds were State Champions. Alfred Good of the 133 pound class, was a runner-up. Congratulations for your excellent work.

Cheerleaders

This year, different from previous years, the election of cheerleaders was placed in the hands of the student body. The best contestants were chosen, and these, in turn, performed before the students who did their voting by secret ballot. The following eleven cheerleaders, chosen to spell the word "Philipsburg," are pictured below with the exception of Sally Gearhart who moved from our school district. To these faithful workers in assemblies and at football, basketball and wrestling events we extend our best wishes and thanks for making every activity a possible success.

Girls' Sports

In the past the girls of P. H. S. have had many opportunities to participate in sports, but this year they were especially fortunate.

Basketball and volleyball, as well as deck tennis, ping pong, shuffle board, mush ball, and badminton teams were organized within the physical education classes. The enthusiasm shown by the girls in volleyball was rewarded by holding an intra-mural volleyball tournament. The last few games which were really thrillers, resulted in team 1 as champion winner and team 8 consultation winner.

Acquiring the gymnasium once a week during the basketball season stmulated the interest in this sport which is a great favorite among the girls.

These opportunities to get a taste of a great variety of sports was due largely to the efforts of our physical education instructor, Miss Williams. The senior girls, as well as the underclassmen wish to express their gratitude for the interest which she has created in these various sports.

Senior Magazine Drive

The Holiday, Saturday Evening Post, Country Gentlemen, Ladies Home Journal, plus many more current magazines were traveling over the lips of the Seniors in the month of February.

The seniors decided to sell subscriptions in order to earn their own money for their banquet and dance, which was held in the spring.

Doris Henry was the general treasurer, with Betty Watson, Shirley Mayes, Pat Anderson, and Bertha Thompson as her assistants. The girls did a marvelous job in keeping the money and subscriptions in order.

One thousand ten dollars and forty cents worth of magazine subscriptions was sold and the seniors made a profit of $370.25.

To Betty Watson, John Batchelor and John Czap for selling the largest amounts of dollars worth went prizes of $5.00, $3.00, and $2.00 respectively. To these and to Carl Faughner was sent a certificate of achievement from Curtis Publishing Company. Lois Richner, Norma Wilsoncroft, Jim Barry, Shirley Wood, and Jean Melius received Eversharp pen and pencil sets in an assembly program at the conclusion of the drive.

New Band Uniforms

Mr. Manner and the members of the Blue Band wish to express their appreciation of the Philipsburg Fire Department and the townspeople for their new band uniforms. As a result of the untiring efforts of the committee of the fire department, the Philipsburg High School Band is certain to be one of the best dressed organizations in the state.

Them Thar Hills-1957

One bright and sunny day in the middle of May, Salomi, the important little pig of Them Thar Hills, Kentucky, decided to take a tour of a nearby town called '47. He was especially interested in this settlement because the entire town was populated with individuals from a way back East, namely Philipsburg, Pennsylvania.

After Salomi had packed his lunch (for he knew it would take the whole day), he set out on his journey. As he approached the outskirts of town, he saw a large dairy farm being managed by the Milliron boys, D. and B. Some of their best helpers were H. Stone, B. Pollisino, D. Sharpless, and C. Faughner—with so much book work to do, their private secretaries were B. Good, H. Wilson, P. Kephart, M. Thompson, and D. Walls. On this state was a large truck garage managed by K. Womer, and his best drivers were J. Hoover, B. Kennedy, B. Johnson, and E. Kolesar. What a profitable business those people had! Little Salomi became very well acquainted with them, and before he left he tasted their delicious creamy milk that the townspeople drank.

On his way into town he stopped at a large and luxurious gasoline station owned by L. Fink, and conversed with two skilled mechanics, N. Gilpatrick and D. Husler. As Salomi began to leave, D. Gette, the mayor, and his private detective, E. Shingledecker offered him a ride into town. They became such good friends that Salomi went along to the office, and found working there D. Brumbaugh, as Chief of Police with P. Schwab, P. Schwab, K. Lukens, J. Beresford, J. Barry, and J. Blasko, his chief assistants. Girls like J. Lathers, S. Wood, R. Schnarrs, B. Burge, and D. Wolfgang were keeping the records of finger prints, criminal cases, and thefts. On the same floor were offices of the District Attorney, B. Thompson. Register and Recorder, P. Latz; Justice of Peace, R. Roth.

In the building next to the courthouse was located the Veteran's Administration where Salomi found F. Collins, R. Kyler, W. Lamb, D. Walls, C. Myers, N. Dobson, F. Price and D. Bannon advising draftees and returned servicemen about the proper procedure to follow. In the testing department of that building were S Dunlap, B. Copeland, B. Philips, L. Richner, J. Smotzer, and B. Plubell in charge.

A large department store, the next building, attracted Salomi's attention. Upon investigation he found that this store was managed by P. Anderson, and B. Watson, as heads of the women's apparel were J. Kelley, J. Hoffner, D. Parkes, T. Wadosky, J. Woods, and M. McClain. In the men's department was J. Taylor, acting manager. On the first floor was L. Winkel, general manager and supervisor. In one of the conversations that Salomi heard, he found out that D. Henry was in charge of all the advertising and decorating for the store; that D. Johnson was Chief Editor of their weekly magazine; that M. Montresor was Publicity Chairman; and J. Hastings and P. O'Brien chief buyers for the store. Even though he wanted to visit longer here, Salomi decided to continue next door and scan the sights there.

This was a huge Beauty Salon jointly managed by L. Wood and J. Williams where the people of '47 received the newest hair-dos from Paris. Some chief operators were E. Shaw, M. Miller, B. Wilson, D. Tatters, D. Eboch, and J. Johnson. In this beauty center, Ann Jones was conducting classes for slenderizing the figure with M. Dixon, W. Dixon, A. Casher, E. Fleck, B. Greenawalt, and M. Shufran as chief instructors. The owners of this profitable business were P. Pearson and P. Goldthorp.

So long "Beauty," said Salomi, as he walked out Presqueisle Street and studied the "Skyline." He saw some famous names on the signs: L. Beech, owner of shirt factory; P. Callis, of a hardware store; C. W. Knepp, a delicatessen; C. Andrews, a book store; S. Mayes, a millinery; M. Plank, a shoe store; B. Kennard, a jewelry store; and E. Hampton, a dealer of Mercurys. Toward the eastern section of this town, Salomi visited the College Center where important students came for instruction from professors, experts in their field: G. Isenberg, Chemistry; L. Miller, Physics; M. Richards, French; J. Mencer, Economics; L. Reese, Typing; D. Hetrick, Latin; J. Sinfelt, Geometry; A. Tekely, Bookkeeping; and D. Reams, Religion. In connection with the college was the State Hospital where Salomi met other important people from the East. Some of the specialized surgeons working there were E. Hinchcliffe, T. Golding, and D. Holt. J. Shimmel, N. Wilsoncroft, and E. Thomas were head nurses while E. Smith, E. Twoey, E. Smeal, O. Perks. G. Millard, and J Melius were some of the most reliable private nurses.

After Salomi ate his lunch under a shady tree on the College Campus, he walked into town and decided to rest himself by attending the play, Macbeth, starring J. Finberg, B. Kephart, G. Peters, S. Dixon, and J. Batcheler. In the City Symphony orchestra seated in the podium, whose names Salomi read on the program were C. M. Knepp, M. Kragle, H. Stover, M. Pfoutz, L. Woods, H. Gowland and H. Croyle with P. Mann, featured soloist, and L. Horne and B. Baumgardner conducting.

After the closing symphonic arrangement of "We Are The Mountaineers," little Salomi, greatly inspired (and tired from sitting) decided, when he saw the sign "Sports Center" across the street, to try some exercises. In charge of this 10 story building was J. Czap who had hired for his concern some of the most outstanding professionals in the country: namely, football, R. Hrenko, G. Cartright, C. Ritchey and N. Holdren; basketball, B. Rapsey, and C. McClay; wrestling, M. Comitz, M. Bock, D. Bainey, and L. Richmond.

Then, before Salomi keeled over from exhaustion he flagged a wealthy plantation owner, M. Kelce, driving a black convertible and hurried to the airport in time to meet the "Dogpatch Special" whose first stop was Them Thar Hills. G. Sawtelle was pilot; C. Shram, co-pilot; G. Miller, navigator; chief mechanics, B. Perks and C. Smith, and air hostess, P. Ryver. Since he had ten minutes before leaving time, he dashed to the cafeteria for a snack. Behind the counter were some efficient and attractive hostesses named V. Hoffer, M. L. Jones, R. Fowler, M. Stratton, and V. Hassinger, manager and cashier. After doughnuts and coffee and the warning signal, little Salomi took seat number 13. A very friendly chap, E. Cieslar, monopolized the conversation by talking about his recent investment in a lumber company up North, and mentioned his chief lumberjacks by name: J. Reese, J. Hilderbrand, D. McQuillen, M. Millard, R. Smeal, and A. Zackey. As the plane glided into the airport (first stop) Salomi bade farewell to his friend, and especially the hostess, and went the rest of the way home by foot. (Some Yokum that a little pig could travel that far.)

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1947, being of most unsound mind and realizing the brevity of life, do solemly swear and affirm this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all other wills, formal or informal, heretofore made by us at any time.

ITEM ONE: To the Faculty we leave:
The sincere hope that none of them have become partially or totally unbalanced in any way at anytime during the years they have been teaching us.

ITEM TWO: To the Juniors, we leave:
The obligatory talk of setting good examples for the underclassmen, our Senior reverence, and those brilliant, distinguished illusions called "Senior privileges".

ITEM THREE: To the Sophomores, we leave:
The consolation that the hardest part is over and that they have only two swell years left—they hope.

ITEM FOUR: To the Freshman, we leave:
We constrain to tell them, but school is really exciting and amazing. We also wish to make the following personal requests:

1. "Winnie Dixon's and "Chuck" Maclay's height to Rose Ann Heichel and Jim Lombardo.
2. Bertha Thompson's personality to Shirley Evans.
